

National Native Title Council (NNTC) Join Us!

Information Sheet

The National Native Title Council is the non-profit, peak body for the native title sector. Our members are made up of the Traditional Owners of Australia's lands, waters and resources, and their representative bodies.

What we do

Through native title and other land-related laws & policies, we advocate for the rights & interests of all First Nations people.

We work together with the native title sector, governments, and industry to strengthen and support the rights of First Nations self-determination to have greater decision-making powers over their lands and waters.

We do this through the following projects:

- National Native Title Compensation Strategy
- National Cultural Heritage Reform
- PBC Policy Reform and Nation Rebuilding
- Regional PBC Forums
- Native Title Training for PBCs
- Forums and events

Become a member

Did you know that membership to the NNTC is free for PBCs? We provide a strong national platform for our members to have a voice.

Stay informed

We regularly meet, update and engage our members into the work we are doing

Create a better system

Working together we have the power to create change in the native title system.

Thrive We can provide members with workshops, training and tailored information.
